Mayor's Diakonia Award Presented to Margarita and Jerry Rogers

Downey, Ca, June 17, 2009

Margarita and Jerry Rogers were presented with the Mayor's Diakonia Award at the City Council meeting, held on Tuesday, June 9, 2009. Mayor Guerra recognized both residents for their community involvement and for being active members of the Unity in the Community group. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are dedicated individuals who care a lot about their City. Through Unity in the Community, they work together with Treasure Island neighbors to help keep their community safe. They go the extra mile to keep the group active and assist in coordinating several neighborhood events.

The Mayor's Diakonia Award will be presented each month to recognize those who provide service and give back to the community. The word Diakonia means "servant" in Greek.

Nominations are currently being accepted. Anyone wishing to nominate someone for this award should contact the City Council office at 562-904-7274.
