PRESS RELEASE

Spooky Science Night at the Columbia Memorial Space Center

Downey, CA, October 9, 2019: The Columbia Memorial Space Center (CMSC) will be hosting its annual Spooky Science Night on Saturday, October 19th from 5:00pm to 9:00pm. It will be a howling good time!

CMSC will be offering fun activities and demonstrations throughout the evening, featuring the all-time favorite Slime Zone. See how different ingredients change your gooey concoction. Downey High School Robotics will also be creeping by to offer some haunted robotics adventures. Other offerings will include ghostly rocket races, dry ice demos, and a spooky builder's room where you can create catapults and other contraptions with a Halloween twist. Traditional guest favorites like the creepy robotics lab, mummy wrap and costume parade are all on the agenda for the night. The Columbia Astronomers will also be offering telescope viewings (weather permitting). Don't forget to come dressed in your favorite costume and make sure to bring your sweet tooth because Paradise Fine Cookies and Ice Cream will be stopping by! This will be a spooktacular experience for all to enjoy! Mark your calendars and plan to join CMSC on Saturday, October 19th 5-9pm for Spooky Science.

Admission to Spooky Science is $5 or FREE for CMSC members. Pre-sale tickets for the event are now on sale at the Space Center!
